Trusted by NHS Trusts and private healthcare across the UK

NHS Magnetics is a contracted supplier to NHS Trusts throughout the United Kingdom, producing bespoke hospital whiteboards, patient status boards and ward communication products that improve patient care and staff efficiency across clinical environments.

We work closely with ward managers, facilities teams and NHS procurement leads to design and supply products that meet the specific needs of each department. From busy surgical wards to outpatient facilities, from intensive care units to rehabilitation environments.

Our products are grounded in the NHS Institute's Productive Ward programme and draw on Lean Thinking and Three-Second Visualisation principles, making patient and process information clear to every relevant discipline within seconds of entering a ward.

Hospital whiteboards

Our hospital whiteboards are high quality, magnetic, easy to clean and built for the demands of busy NHS clinical environments. We design every board to your exact ward or department requirements — incorporating your trust or hospital logo at no extra charge, in your choice of colours, layout and size.

Whether you need a patient status at a glance board for a surgical ward, a performance board for your ward manager's office or a bespoke patient information display for a specialist unit, we can design and supply it.

Magnetic whiteboard labels are also available to use alongside your PSAG board.

Designing your hospital

We make the design process as straightforward as possible. Here's how it works:

Tell us what you need – size, layout, information fields, colour preferences and your trust logo

We produce a design proof – for your approval before anything goes to print

We manufacture and deliver – directly to your ward or facilities team

A rough sketch of what you have in mind is a useful starting point – we'll take it from there.

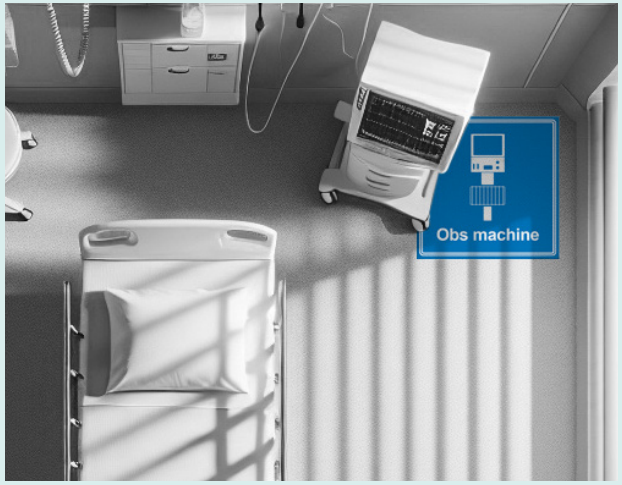
Hospital floor signs for NHS wards and corridors



Our hospital floor signs are printed on high-specification water-resistant PVC vinyl and laminated with a clear sand-textured anti-slip film — making them suitable for busy NHS clinical environments where hygiene, durability and safety underfoot are all essential.

Self-adhesive and straightforward to install, our floor signs are produced to your design — with your trust branding, your wayfinding layout or your infection control messaging.

Floor sign specification

Material: High-specification water-resistant PVC vinyl

Laminate: Clear sand-textured PVC film for slip resistance

Application: Self-adhesive — clean, dry floor surface required

Design: Bespoke to your requirements — full colour printing

Sizes: Standard and bespoke sizes available

Applications

Our hospital floor signs are used across NHS environments for:

Wayfinding and directional signage in corridors and entrances

- ✓ Infection control zone markings and hand hygiene reminders
- ✓ Social distancing and patient flow management
- ✓ Department and bay identification
- ✓ Safety warnings and hazard markings
- ✓ Patient and visitor communication in waiting areas

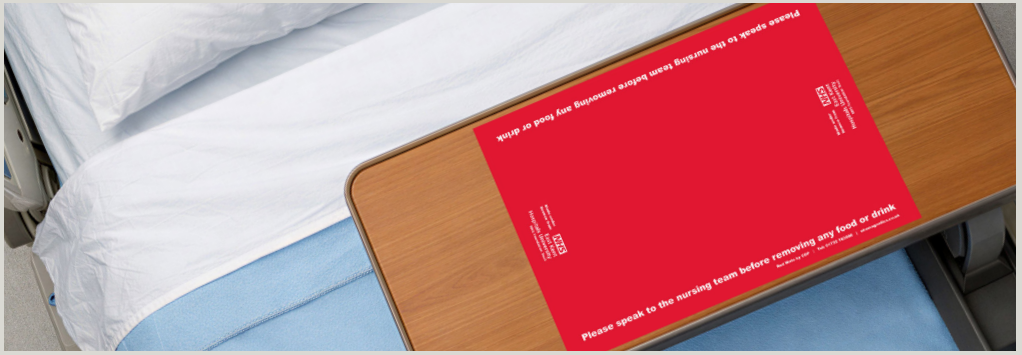
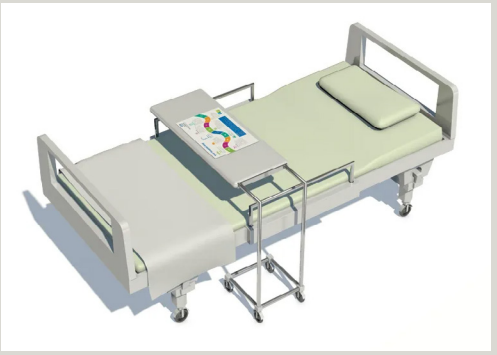
Bedside patient information mats for NHS wards





Our bedside mats place your trust's key messages directly in front of the people who need to receive them — bed patients and their visitors.

Positioned at the bedside, they provide a clear, visible surface for patient information, infection control guidance, call system instructions and any other communication your trust needs to deliver at the point of care.

Durable, wipe-clean and produced to your exact design — with your trust branding, your information layout and your choice of content.

Specification

Surface: Durable, wipe-clean material suitable for clinical environments

Design: Produced to your specification — full colour, with your trust logo and information layout

Sizes: Contact us for available sizes and bespoke options

What NHS trusts use bedside mats for

Bedside mats are used across NHS wards and patient-facing environments to:

- ✓ Display infection control guidance such as hand hygiene reminders
- ✓ Communicate patient assistance instructions
- ✓ Provide visiting hours and ward information for patients and families
- ✓ Display NHS trust or ward-specific patient information
- ✓ Deliver safety messages to patients at the point of car

Designing your bedside mat

We make the design process as straightforward as possible. Here's how it works:

Tell us what you need – size, layout, information, colour preferences and your trust logo

We produce a design proof – for your approval before anything goes to print

We manufacture and deliver – directly to your ward or facilities team

A rough sketch of what you have in mind is a useful starting point – we'll take it from there.

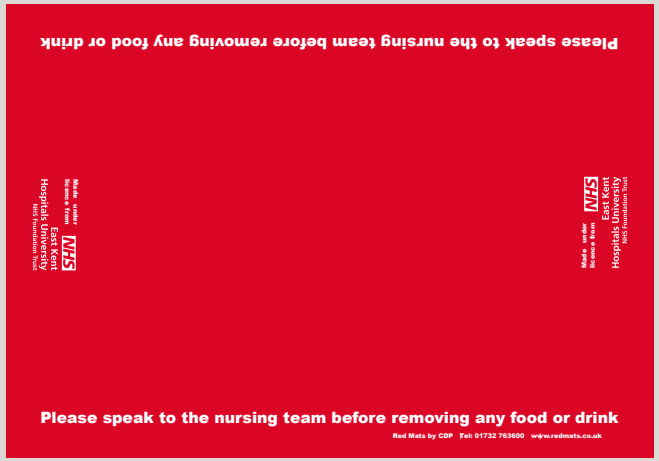
Bedside mats (red mat)



Standard red mats (Size: A3)

This is an innovative, non-slip bed table mat supporting the national 'Red Tray' nutritional awareness concept... but, unlike the conventional red tray, these are slim, easy-to-clean and designed to be left on the bed table 24/7 to raise and maintain staff awareness regarding nutritional and hydration needs of individual patients.

The design shown is already standard licensed design by East Kent Hospitals University NHS Foundations Trust, but we can produce other designs to suit your needs.

Non-standard red mats (Size: A3)

Red mats with your own messaging and trust logo. Subject to a minimum order of 200 mats. Please enquire for pricing.

Notes:

1. Minimum order is for 100 standard mats. If you do require smaller quantities (i.e. less than 100) please still contact us for a price, as we may have a larger order pending that we can add your order to.
2. All prices plus VAT.
3. A variation in quantity of up to plus or minus 10% will be delivered and charged accordingly.
4. Delivery cost is included to anywhere in the UK.
5. We can also print mats to other sizes, designs, full colour, with photos, with your trust logo etc. Please enquire for examples.

Bedside mats (bespoke)

We can print your bespoke design on the table top mats – the ideal way of getting your trust messages 'under the noses' of the people who you need to reach – the bed patients.

We can either print from your artwork or we can design to your bespoke requirements. Any colour, photographs or graphics, any logo you wish to include.

Please enquire about prices for bespoke photo mats.
